Saturday Night Out: Social Spots
Jo Thompson

There was a time the Duluth Township neighborhood was a hopping place. In the past people gathered at taverns, restaurants, dance halls and perhaps, even at one time, speakeasies! There was live theater and a drive-in on the shore. Mark your calendars for November 2, 2019, 6:30 to 9 pm for a Saturday Night Out and enjoy photos and presentations on the social spots that occupied our Township in years past. The agenda isn’t firmed up yet, so if you know of and/or have photos or stories of any of these “spots”. Please let Duane Madison know (525-5854) or leave an email message for Jo Thompson at woodfarm1785@gmail.com. We are hoping to add some old music to the event also. Look for more detail in the September Newsletter.

Clifton Volunteer Fire Department
Bob Engelson, Fire Chief

Clifton Fire Department is grateful for training grants from the Minnesota Board of Firefighter Training and Education (MBFTE). Funds have been used for firefighting training, driving training, auto extrication, medical training, training videos and texts, responder safety, and more.

AIM Firewise grant update—We need to limit the curbside chipping areas to those that can be covered in 2 days. Curbside chipping will not be possible for all the addresses that applied this year. Requests for chipping that were submitted helped determine areas with most need.

See the insert for curbside chipping areas. In addition, there will be brush drop-off sites at the fire halls on Ryan Road and the Laine Road as options. We will pursue funding for more free chipping.

Details on dates for chipping, routes, size of brush, and other instructions are in the insert

The goal continues to be wildfire risk reduction and protection of homes and residents. Thank you for your understanding and contributing to the safety of our community.

911 Sign Campaign—We have been told to expect delivery of the new 911 signs sometime in July. It is an important community effort to get the signs installed. Notification of sign pickup times will be forthcoming.

Neighbors helping neighbors. It is essential for every residence to have a visible 911 sign so emergency services can find you when you need help. A great way to install signs is for neighbors to help each other. This will be more efficient when Gopher State One-Call comes to mark the utility lines before sign posts are installed. You can also determine which neighbors might need help installing their signs. Once you have made the neighborhood connections, the EOC (our Emergency Operations Center) can help you establish phone trees, arrange for wildfire assessments for your properties, assist with fuel reduction activities, and help your neighborhood pool resources to be a “Firewise Community”.

Volunteers who are interested in becoming firefighters and/or emergency medical responders should contact Chief Bob Engelson at 525-6819. All necessary training and equipment are provided.
Our Comprehensive Land Use Plan Update
Core Community Values Approved, Visioning Ahead
Planning Director Sue Lawson,

Thank you to all who came to the May 23rd Planning Commission Meeting and gave us input on the draft Core Community Values. Your input was considered and the Community Steering Group (CSG) used that information in completing the Recommended Core Community Values that were forwarded to the Town Board for approval. At the June 13th Town Board meeting the Supervisors unanimously approved the core community values to be used in updating the Comprehensive Land Use Plan (CLUP). These Core Community Values will be posted on the Township website.

A report, “Looking Back—Looking Forward: A review of the 2002 Comprehensive Land Use Plan, 2002-2018” has been completed and will be used to help update the Comprehensive Land Use Plan. This will also be posted on the website.

The approved Township Core Community Values will be used to help develop a vision for our Township. A vision is a weaving together of the values a community holds, its resources, assets and aspirations. A vision creates a picture of the community as a whole that is desired in the future.

Over the summer the Community Steering Group will be working on creating a vision for the Township.

When a vision has been agreed upon, the next step in the planning process is to develop guiding goals and policies to help move us toward that vision.

As we move forward, updating the Comprehensive Land Use Plan we will be keeping you updated through this Newsletter and our Township web site: www.duluthtownship.org.

The 2020 U.S. Census

April 1st, 2020 is the official “census day”, the 10-year census of the U.S. population. Essential as a basis for our democracy, it is critical that everyone in the US be counted.

Many things important to us rely on having a full and accurate census! For us in Minnesota, a complete count assures us receiving our fair share of federal funds and it may mean that we retain or lose one Representative in Congress. It is also the basis for congressional redistricting.

There will be requests for folks to self-complete the Census form. It is required by law and is confidential by established law. Individual information can not be disclosed to anyone including other government agencies. Please respond fully to the Census. Encourage others to respond fully too.

The 2020 Census also has employment opportunities for office and field jobs. Contact: 2020census.gov/jobs or call 1-855-562-2020 for more information and help applying.

The State Demographer reported that their 2018 population estimate for Duluth Township was 753 households with a population of 1,932.. This is 2 fewer households and 6 fewer people than in 2017.

Ken Peterson, 3rd Captain, attended a course at the Wildland Fire Academy on Fire Operations in the Urban Interface. The course is designed to assist emergency responders who will be planning for and making operational decisions during an urban/rural wildfire incident. We are grateful to The Volunteer Fire Assistance (VFA) from the DNR for funding the course.
April 25th regular meeting. Commissioners Wayne Dahlberg, Dave Edblom, Jerry Hauge and Liz Strohmayer attended plus Planning Director Sue Lawson, Secretary Beth Mullan and Board Liaison Mike Kahl. Officers: Liz Strohmayer was elected chair and Wayne Dahlberg as vice chair.

Director’s Report: Eleven people attended the April 18th open house for the draft core community values. There were a few comments which will be discussed at the Comprehensive Land Use Plan (CLUP) Steering Group’s meeting. A discussion of local commerce led to adding “We value access to local goods and services within the Township”. Public comments could also be made at the May 23rd regular Commission meeting and at the regular Town Board meeting in June. A Star Grant from the Coastal Program for $10,000 was approved to support continued work on goals and policies starting in September. It is anticipated that a draft of an updated CLUP will be available early in 2020.

May 23rd regular meeting. Commissioners Wayne Dahlberg, Dave Edblom, Jerry Hauge, Liz Strohmayer (chair), new commissioners Pam West and Angela Wilson, and Larry Zanko attended, plus Planning Director Sue Lawson, Secretary Beth Mullan and Board Liaison Mike Kahl.

Community members had been invited through postings and the Newsletter to provide input on the core values statement developed by the CLUP Steering Group. Six interested people attended but did not sign up to present comments. The process of developing the list of core values was discussed. The current process will lead to an update and potential revision. Our first CLUP was written in 1976 and the last revision was in 2002.

The Core Community Value Statement was reviewed and unanimously adopted by the Commission. It will go to the Town Board for their consideration.

May 9th regular meeting. Supervisors Rolf Carlson (chair), Michael Kahl and Corlis West attended plus Town Clerk Ann Cox and Treasurer Mel Peulen.

Reports: The Board interviewed and voted to approve Angela Wilson and Pamela West for the two Planning Commission vacancies (Corlis abstained). Planning: The Stormwater MS4 report is due June 30th. A Core values document and the open house are progressing. Roads: The road forum was held with 6 people attending. There was discussion and concerns about skipping the chloride application this year. St Louis County inspected three bridges in the Township. Town Hall: Barb Crow and Jim Madison are working on the new sound system which will connect to the projector and include a wireless microphone. A motion passed for $797.73 for the new sound system. Communications: Barb Crow spoke about the web site and the need to find a replacement web master. She has been the volunteer web master for some time.

Annual Stormwater Plan Public Meeting
Duluth Town Hall, Thursday, August 8th at 6:30pm
Jo Thompson and Val Brady

Most of the water from rain, snow or wells that goes onto our properties ends up running into ditches, streams, and the lake. Good practices help to slow the erosive effect of water and to minimize the amount of pollutants (included sediment) that ends up in our waters. The Township has developed a Stormwater Plan that seeks to meet the Township’s goals of maintaining good water quality in our streams and lake and to limit the effects of stormwater and point/non-point pollution (http://www.duluthtownship.org/pdf/comp_land_use_plan.pdf). The program consists of a number of documents, such as the Stormwater, Erosion, and Sediment Control Ordinance http://www.duluthtownship.org/Planning_Zoning/Stormwater_Ordinance_1.pdf, a Storm Water Pollution Prevention Plan http://www.duluthtownship.org/pdf/stormwater_prevention_plan.pdf, an Illicit Discharge Ordinance (See fact sheet at http://www.duluthtownship.org/wp-content/uploads/7-13-16-FAQsheet-Illlicit-Discharge-Identification.pdf) and a map identifying the location of all the Township’s road ditches and culverts and their receiving channels. Once a year, the Township seeks resident input on this plan. Comments are appreciated and these can either be provided at the meeting on August 8th or sent by mail or email to the Township prior to the meeting. A hard copy of documents in the above links will be available at the town hall during regular business hours.
Moonshine in the Township?

John Schifsky

Three men about fifteen feet from the camera, each holding a clear, partially full bottle of distinctive shape, the three of them with their arms draped around each other’s shoulders. There is what appears to be a small waterfall in the background. Wide grins on their faces, white t-shirts, everyone is happy, great camaraderie likely the result of a warm summer day, youth, whatever was in the bottles. No captions on the photo, the picture most likely taken seventy or eighty years ago. It piqued interest and led to mostly frustrating efforts to discover how prevalent were the moonshining activities in Duluth Township during Prohibition and in the decades after.

When asked, Township seniors (mostly men) usually affected a blank look, and the responses were almost all the same - nothing like that happened here; it was all up in Alden. The crazy Finns in Alden were the culprits and the evidence was obvious: their big, beautiful barns. A nice barn meant money, and since no one had much money in the 30’s, 40’s, and 50’s, the funds had to be coming from someplace, and since everyone knew everyone else’s business including where they worked and how much they were paid, making and selling whiskey was a logical conclusion. But not in Duluth Township, no, at least not anyone the speaker knew. There was, however, a bit of evidence: when Millie and Don Oberg had a pond dug on their property on the Paul Road, a pile of moonshine bottles surfaced. It was unclear whether they were empties or not.

One homesteader admitted to knowing some things but wouldn’t go further. “Some of their family members are still alive and living in the Township. I’m 88 and have enough aggravation already.” But he did say the Finns (again) had some creative ways to transport product. Some entrepreneurs strapped hot water bottles around their midriffs, put on coats and skied down Homestead and then into Duluth. Reportedly, some subterfuge was necessary as there was a Finnish revenue agent in Alden who was intent on maintaining prices; he arrested guys who sold for less than the going rate. Sometimes efforts to hide the shine were quite creative. One man bought old batteries, cut the tops off, cleaned them out and refilled the empty cases with whiskey, carefully reattaching the tops. He was reported to have a truck full of old battery cases. There is also a reliable report that a local cooked moon in the school into the 50’s.

Molde Hall, a popular dance site, was in Alden, close to the north border of Duluth Township, at the crossroads of the App, Two Harbors and Fox Farm Roads. It was, according to “Roots” a popular dance venue and a ready source of moonshine which was “available either in the woods out back of the hall or for those a little bolder, simply out of the trunks of many cars lining both sides of the road. Dance nights could get quite wild. People from far and wide came to see if the hall’s reputation was true, buy a little ‘moon,’ and maybe even occasionally dance” (p71). One knowledgeable Township resident, when asked about the goings-on at Molde, referred to them, generally, as: “Whiskey Night.” The epithet sounds like it might have had some currency. And it does stand to reason that if there were many purveyors of spirits present, some might well have been from Duluth Township.

Today no readily visible remains of the popular hall can be seen; there is a collapsing garage near the northeast corner of the crossroad, and further east, along Fox Farm Road, a cleared field behind an electric fence with a large garden set against the woods. Horses were grazing there. The peaceful scene is out of character with the stories from the past, and is more in character with Township residents’ reputation, well-documented, for diligence, sobriety, and responsibility. Lutheran values which do not brook, according to the accepted narrative, hooch making.

(Editor’s note: if you have some stories about that period and moonshine making, please pass them on to John Schifsky or leave them in the Town Hall mail box. It would be unfortunate to lose the stories of the era. Surely all the dancing was fueled by something more than coffee. Anonymity is guaranteed.)
