Lake County Public hearing: Lake County is holding a variance on a piece of property at the very Western edge of their county.

There were two public hearings last month both were approved. Short term rental hearing on Alseth road approved for a very short period of time.

Zoning ordinance changes: The public hearing will be July 26th and will also include the fees for road entry permits, solar array systems and accessory structures. The Town board has to adopt the changes which cannot be done until the public comment/public hearing has taken place.

The commission did a big review and wrote standards for commercial structures below the expressway.

Variance at the next meeting: a very small parcel of property in the 9 acre zone district.

Beth, Clint Little and Sue are gathering data to update the comprehensive land use plan, part of the discussion has focused on gathering a lot of data and creating a data base of geographic information. A grant has been submitted to renew the comprehensive land use plan. The anticipated project cost is $17000 with an in-kind match of approximately $9500 the grant fund is $7500.
